

Meadow Reading Trail 1

Word Reading and Comprehension

Name:- ..... Class:- ..... Teacher:- ..... Year:- .....

1. I can recognise all the initial sounds of the alphabet	2. I can blend sounds to read new words, including nonsense words	3. I can read two letters that make one sound eg 'sh', 'll', 'ng'	4. I can read half the phonically regular, high frequency words from the Meadow word list	5. I can read all the phonically regular, high frequency words from the Meadow word list	6. I can read half the tricky high frequency words from the Meadow word list
7. I can read all the tricky high frequency words from the Meadow word list	8. I can read half the NC exception words from the Meadow list	9. I can read all the NC exception words from the Meadow list	10. I can read three letters that make one sound eg igh, air	11. I can read words with contractions eg. I'm, I'll, we'll	12. I can explain that in words such as I'll, the apostrophe replaces the missing letters
13. I can identify the correct sounds in a word using phonemes taught so far eg ai, ay, a-e	14. I can read polysyllabic words with grapheme-phoneme correspondences taught so far	15. I can read words containing -ing and -ed, endings	16. I can read words containing -er and -est endings	17. I can read words containing -s, -es endings	18. I can retell well-known stories using actions to help me
19. I can recognise and join in with repeated phrases in a story	20. I can remember some nursery rhymes and recite them out loud	21. I can discuss word meanings, linking new meanings to those I already know	22. I can tell when a sentence doesn't make sense in my reading	23. I can correct my mistakes as I am reading	24. I can link the title to the events in a book
25. I can answer simple questions about what I have read	26. I can find clues in the text about what a character is thinking or feeling	27. I can use the title and blurb to predict what might happen in a story	28. I can recognise the difference between fact and fiction	29. I can identify labels, the contents page and the title	30. I can recall points from a text after reading