

Forest Reading Trail 3

Word Reading and Comprehension

Name:- Class:- Teacher:- Year:- 20 /

1. I can begin to identify prefixes to help in reading eg -un,-dis,-mis	2. I can recognise that one spelling choice can make different sounds to help read words eg 'ea' - feature, weather, great	3. I can begin to identify suffixes to help with reading eg -ly, -ation	4. I can read the phonically regular, high frequency words from the Forest word list	5. I can read the tricky high frequency words from the Forest word list	6. I can read the NC exception words from the Forest word list
7. I can ask questions about the main events in a book	8. I can give reasons why I asked a particular question about events	9. I can show that I have understood what I have read by answering questions about events or main facts	10. I can discuss why a character might be feeling in a certain way	11. I can find evidence from different points in the text to back up my ideas	12. I can predict what might happen next in a story using what I know about the book so far
13. I can recognise language features of different types of texts	14. I can recognise structure and presentation features of different types of texts	15. I can skim read to find important information in non-fiction texts	16. I can check that the text makes sense to me by correcting a mistake	17. I can work out the meaning of new words from the context	18. use a dictionary to check the meaning of new words
19. I can show my understanding of the text by using expression when I read aloud	20. I can retell orally some stories that are becoming familiar to me eg different fairy stories, myths and legends	21. I can read aloud to perform a poem	22. I can read aloud to perform a play script	23. I can begin to recognise some different forms of poetry eg Haiku. Limerick	24. I can find specific information from a non-fiction text by locating key words in contents and index pages
26. I can explain the main ideas in a non-fiction paragraph	27. I can identify words that capture my interest and imagination	28. I can explain similarities in books written by the same author	   Autumn - Orange Spring - Green Summer - Yellow   		