

Riverbank Writing Trail 2

Transcription, Handwriting, Composition, Vocabulary, Grammar and Punctuation

Name:- Class:- Teacher:- Year:- 20 /

1. I can spell the high frequency words from the Riverbank word list	2. I can spell the NC exception words from the Riverbank word list	3. I can spell words with missing letters using apostrophes	4. I can spell some common homophones using sounds and spellings taught so far eg hear, here	5. I can form compound words	6. I can add suffixes to spell longer words eg -ment, -ness, -less, -ful, ly
7. I can form lower case letters of the correct size	8. I can write capital letters of the correct size	9. I can join some letters	10. I can plan a story with a beginning, middle and end	11. I can write a narrative about my own and other people's experiences	12. I can write down key words and ideas, including new vocabulary eg in a word bank or story map
13. I can write for different purposes eg real events, poetry, reports etc	14. I can write sentences in different forms eg statements, commands and questions	15. I can add description to my writing using adjectives and verbs	16. I can write, from memory, simple sentences read out to me, using words and punctuation taught	17. I can start my sentences in different ways eg He, The, I, My	18. I can use some connectives to extend my ideas eg when, if, that, because
19. I can use some connectives to link ideas eg and, or, but	20. I can order my writing using time connectives eg first, next, then	21. I can use an apostrophe to show belonging for singular nouns in some of my writing eg the man's hat	22. I can use the present and past tenses correctly and consistently	23. I can begin to group my ideas together in sections eg paragraphs	24. I can proof-read for errors in spelling and punctuation taught so far
25. I can read my writing aloud in a clear voice, beginning to use expression	26. I can use commas in a list	27. I can use full stops correctly	28. I can use capital letters correctly	29. I can use exclamation marks correctly to end my sentences	30. I can use question marks correctly to end my sentences